SYMPOSIUM MANUSCRIPT GUIDELINES

This outline is to be used by authors when submitting their final manuscript to the symposium. The instructions bellow should be followed as closely as possible to ensure the most consistent and professional appearance of the papers.

Manuscript Language: All manuscripts must be in English.

Manuscript Length: Papers should be a minimum of 15 pages in length and shall not exceed 20 pages. All text must be double-spaced and in Times New Roman 12-point font.

Citation Style: The APA Publication Manual (6th ed) must be used thought the document.

Title: The title of the paper should be brief but adequately describe the content of the paper. It should be typed in upper case with Times New Roman 14-point bold and placed on a separate sheet (1st sheet).

Authors: Authors' names must be listed in descending order of their relative contribution, followed by their affiliations and contact information.

Abstract: The abstract should summarize the main points of the paper and be not more than 300 words in length. It should state the purpose, methods, results and conclusions of the work.

Body of the paper: The paper should include major sections such as introduction, background, methods, results, discussion, implications and conclusions. No more than 3 levels of headings may be used.

References: All bibliographical references must be listed and numbered at the end of the paper in alphabetical order by author. The reference list should be on a new page and use the hanging indent.
